

WRITING:

1. Write a story based on one of the following topics:
 - A song that means a lot to me.
 - My first school memories.
 - Discovering a new friend
2. Use adjectives, present, future and past continuous tense, pronouns, verbs and punctuations etc.
3. Use the writing process (mind map, rough draft and final piece)
4. Your story must be divided into three (3) paragraphs, sixty to eighty words.

Story writing	6	5	4	3	2	1
Setting and characters.	Skillful, creative description of setting and characters.	Good description of setting and characters.	Adequate description of setting and characters.	Setting and characters lacks originality.	Vague description of setting and characters.	No description of setting and characters.
Plot.	Interesting and creative plot, original ideas.	Plot contains some originality.	Correct sequence but lacks originality.	Plot is unclear, some gaps in sequencing.	Plot very poorly developed.	No plot developed.
Use of writing process.	Excellent use of writing process, has produced a refined final draft. Proofreading has eliminated mistakes.	Good use of writing process, evidence of progressive improvement in writing piece. Mistakes still evident.	Has used the writing process but has not put it into a well-developed piece of writing.	Some use of writing process (very basic planning)	Poor use of writing process. Many mistakes in writing.	No use of writing process.
Use of descriptive language	Excellent use of descriptive language.	Good use of descriptive language.	Adequate use of descriptive language.	Some use of descriptive language but not clear.	Little use of descriptive language.	No use of descriptive language.
Cohesive sentence structure, grammar, punctuation and spelling	Excellent sentence structure and punctuation and spelling.	Creative use of language, most sentences constructed well. Few spelling errors.	Most sentences are correct, many punctuation and spelling errors	Sentence structure fair but very basic. Several errors in language use.	Poor sentence structure. Many punctuation and spelling errors.	Sentence structure makes no sense at all.

DO YOUR PLANNING HERE:

